

Bali Institute Youth Scholarship Application

Awakening Global Action: Leadership, Indigenous Wisdom and Dialogue for a Transforming World Ubud, Bali July 31- August 7, 2007

Youth interested in obtaining a partial or full scholarship will need to complete the application questionnaire below. If you are using Adobe Reader you can fill it out using the Typewriter Tool. You may also download this application as an MS Word document here: http://www.baliinstitute.org/aga_scholarship.doc

Name _____

Address _____

Phone _____ Age _____ Country _____

From what city and country will you be traveling to and from Bali? _____

Email: _____

School (if you are still in school) _____

Work or Current Position _____

Describe your intention for attending the Awakening Global Action gathering. What do you hope to receive from being a part of this global community of activists?

Describe some of the projects you have been involved in regarding social change.

What are some burning questions that you would like to address with other emerging leaders regarding social change?

You will be invited to participate in one of five small groups or “pods” during the gathering. This will be the group that you spend two days in training and discussion with during the gathering to enhance your ability as a leader. Please indicate a first and second choice.

- Education, Social and Political Change _____
- Spirituality, Medicine, and Indigenous Healing as Change Agents _____
- Media, Film, Journalism and Art as Activism _____
- Global Economics, Business And NGOs In Collaboration _____
- Deep Ecology, Environment And Sustainability Advocacy _____

Please email this form to our Global Projects Director, Ryan Feinstein, at: ryan@baliinstitute.org as soon as possible. Ryan will be in touch with you to discuss your interest in the Awakening Global Action gathering and to further determine your financial needs related to the gathering.

Thanks for your interest with our program and we look forward to having you participate.